Still Have a Chance To Help It Along

SOME HAVE MADE A FLYING START

THE PRIZE OF PRIZE WINNERS

The books are closed for listing contestants. Thirty have been listed and already they are working manfully for the palatial "Cadillac 8" and the other BIG prizes which are being offered in the Dallas Express Prize Contest.

It may be that you, Reader, had intended to enter this contest. It may be that you "intended" to try to win one of these wonderful prizes but now it is too late. Your chance is gone.

It strikes us though that you may have a friend in the running. If so, why not win by proxy? Why not help your friend to win and thereby get pleasure for yourself out of his success?

In all sections of Texas, the public is anxious to read the "Dallas Express" because of the peculiar and singular pleasure experienced from its "Distinctive Service."

It fills a long felt want in the appetite of the progressive public.

There are many in your town who want it.

Why not take their subscriptions for your friends?

We know that there are such people in your town. We judge by the fact that we receive subscriptions each week, unsolicited, from people who have long been anxious to take the "Dallas Express" but who have not known how to go about it.

When you put such people in touch with this fast growing and altogether satisfying publication you are doing both a personal and public service.

When one who has never read it before reads the "Express," he immediately realizes that he has found a creditable storehouse of information and a never ending source of inspiration. He is helped.

When he is helped, the public is helped because he at once tends to become a more progressive, courageous citizen and race man.

Why not do it? Can't you see that it is your duty thus to help your friends and neighbors?

If you know of a town to which the "Express" does not go, put us in touch with it.

If you have a friend in the contest and other friends who do not subscribe for the "Express" get them for your contestant friend and make him win.

This contest will be marked by hard work and hard fought victory. And the victors will be rewarded by prizes, the like of which have never been seen in Texas before.

We will publish the standing of the contestants each week.

Some partial returns are already in.

Watch this space for developments. The contestants as they now stand are:
